

MEDICAL LEAVE

A MEDICAL LEAVE is time taken away from your place of work so you can receive treatment for or recover from one's own serious health condition. This includes pregnancy and serving as an organ/bone marrow donor.

How long can you take?

Eligible workers can receive up to 12 weeks of income replacement in a 12 month period. You may be entitled for an additional 2 weeks for pregnancy and pre-natal care. It may be taken on a continuous basis, an intermittent basis or on a reduced schedule basis.

What is a serious medical condition?

Can be physical or mental. Requires inpatient care, continuing or chronic care, surgery (including elective surgery). Pregnancy, delivery and recovery as well as pre-natal care. Treatment due to organ or bone marrow donation.

Apply at CTPaidLeave.org or call/text 860-208-8288 to make an appointment with a Community Outreach Specialist. We can answer your questions, provide a computer and internet, and walk you thru the process.
